Description

A small, tan leather Cigar Case.

As with most leather cigar cases, it is made of two sleeves with one fitting inside the other. Although you are restricted on the diameter of the cigar, the length of the case will extend. Each sleeve is made of two pieces of leather with a raised, stitched seam.

There is no maker's name to the case but the inner sleeve is stamped 5 which is probably a size indicator. Aside from cigars, the case would also work well to hold business cards. The width of the interior is 2 3/4 inches (7 cm).

The condition is good and the case has a nice colour. Circa 1900.
