Description

A small, steel faux Rosewood Safe or cash box.

The Safe is painted to resemble rosewood with box lines to each side to suggest panels. The top has further thin gilt lines with one thicker half inch border. The interior of the Safe is painted red and retains its tray. Its common for the tray to such Safes to be missing.

The top has a carrying handles and the safe has its key. To open the top, the key needs to be turned three time. Circa 1900.
