Description

A pair of cast brass Brighton Bun Travel Candlesticks.

The smaller size of this pair of candlesticks suggest that they are from the second half of the 19th century. They have some ring turning decoration to the sconces and both the exterior and interior of the dishes. With the sconces unscrewed and packed into the dishes, which in turn screw together to form a bun shape, they pack down neatly for travel. Circa 1875.
