A pair of brass Carl Zeiss Binoculars with leather grips and retaining most of their blacking to the metal.

They are engraved Carl Zeiss Sena D.R.P. below one eye piece and Feldstecher Vergr = 8 to the other. The leather case is marked S.M. Jolly RE in ink to the top. The binoculars do not have a registration number but the attached loops for the neck strap show that they were made prior to 1904 when intergral loops were introduced. A good condition pair of binoculars by an exceptional maker. Circa 1900.

Case Size is given.
