Description

This model has a with moulded edge to the candlestick dishes and can be considered large with a diameter of 5 inches.

The Brighton Bun is a classic piece of campaign or travel design. One candle sconce has a screw fitting with the other a female section. The same is true of the 2 dishes allowing them to be screwed together to form a bun shape which will also contain the two removed sconces. Early to mid 19th Century.

Size for Use is given.

The last photo gives a size comparison to a similar pair without a moulded edge.
