Description

A small pair of blacked brass Binoculars in leather case.

The unnamed Binoculars have leather grips as well as leather to the extending sun shades. The leather case is well made with a carrying handles and adjustable shoulder strap. Its lined in a dark red velvet to cushion the binoculars.

Both the case and binoculars are well made and in very good condition. The small size is bigger than a pair of opera glasses and they would be useful for horse racing or field sports. Early 20th Century.

Case size is given.
